Librarian's Report.

LEE PUBLIC LIBRARY, OPEN SATURDAY'S FROM 2 TO 5 P. M.

We have not thought it necessary to publish a list of the books added this year in the annual report as all have been catalogued and will be found there.

Our thanks are due to Miss Bessie Cartland and Mr. Chas. S. Cartland for their usual donation. Miss Mary E. Smith has remembered us with 22 volumes. Mr. James H. Currier with 13. Mr. Fred P. Comings has given us six, while other living friends have made up the number of 86 books donated this year, for all of which we are especially thankful.

There are nearly one hundred and fifty volumes for reference in the library which have not been catalogued, also quantities of unbound magazines all of which are accessible from the shelves at any time. We are very thankful for the interest shown and hope it may continue.
